

About Us:

Rainbow Romance Writers is the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender romance chapter of the Romance Writers of America. We are an online chapter, and our members are from all over the globe.

Our goals are:

- to promote excellence in gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender romances
- to help members become published in LGBT romances
- to be an advocate within the industry for our genre
- to be a resource to our members and others on writing and the publishing industry

We are career-focused writers, and what we love to write are passionate, sensual, sweet, and sometimes erotic glimpses of love between LGBT characters.

Draw your chair up close to the edge of the precipice and I'll tell you a story.

- F. Scott Fitzgerald

Romance Writers of America

Special Interest Chapter #217

Writing is not primarily escape, but use.

Member Benefits

Networking

Our members run the gamut from pre-published to published authors as well as associate members that include editors, agents, publishers and other industry representatives.

Newsletter

Members are provided with a quarterly newsletter containing craft articles, interviews and other information.

Chapter Website and Members-Only Discussion Group

The chapter website contains relevant information for members and non-members alike, including a bookshelf with recent releases from our authors, as well as member bios and workshop details. The discussion group allows members a place to freely discuss topics pertinent to the GLBT writing community as well as other subject matters of interest to any of our members.

Workshops

Workshops covering a variety of topics about writing and the writing business, including research and craft are offered to chapter members at a discount.

To know is nothing at all; to imagine is everything.

- Anatole France

Community

Our members are passionate about bridging the gaps between authors that are writing in the different subgenres as well as between the LGBT romance authors and the greater romance community.
